DECEMBER, 1947

Number 9

Association Activities

AT THE Stated Meeting on December 9 there will be presented a report by the Special Committee on the Federal Courts, of which Edwin A. Falk is chairman. The report deals with suggested measures to forestall future efforts to invade the independence of the Federal Courts, particularly of the United States Supreme Court. The report of the Committee has been mailed to all members.

A second feature of the program will be an informal report by Judge Samuel I. Rosenman of the Special Committee on Public and Bar Relations. Judge Rosenman will describe the work his Committee has done in cooperation with the Committee on Taxation to develop some plan to provide Federal Income Tax relief for those not already covered by existing pension plan provisions.

Interim reports will be received from the following committees: Committee on Administrative Law, Robert M. Benjamin, Chairman; Committee on Criminal Courts, Law and Procedure, Harry C. Kane, Chairman; Committee on Federal Legislation, John E. F. Wood, Chairman; Committee on Foreign Law, John N. Hazard, Chairman; Committee to Cooperate with the Judicial Council, Theodore Kiendl, Chairman; Committee on Law Reform, Barent Ten Eyck, Chairman; Committee on Legal Education, William J. O'Shea, Chairman; Committee on Patents, Robert Wayne Byerly, Chairman; Committee on Taxation, Rollin Browne, Chairman.

THE COMMITTEE ON TAXATION on December 9 will release its carefully considered and comprehensive report on proposed changes in the Federal tax laws. Rollin Browne is the chairman of the Committee.

Members of the Association will remember that the previous report of the Committee on Taxation was widely distributed and generally acclaimed as a definitive contribution to the literature on the subject. The report this year embodies some of the suggestions made in the previous report, and also a good many new recommendations demanded by present conditions. It is thought that the report, which will be distributed to members of Congress, officials of the Treasury Department, and others, will be influential in the coming consideration by the Congress of changes in the tax structure.

A summary of the report will be mailed to all members of the Association, and the full report will be available to those members who make application to the Executive Secretary.

ON NOVEMBER 26 the Committee on Junior Bar Activities, Henry Harfield, Chairman, sponsored an Inter-Law School Competition between Yale and Columbia. Teams from the two schools argued before an Appellate Court consisting of Judge Bernard L. Shientag, Judge Edward A. Conger, and Judge James B. M. McNally. The contestants from Yale were Gilbert Hahn, Jr., and Powell Pierpoint, and from Columbia, Bouvier Beale, Michael F. Dennis, and David Sive.

At the close of the arguments the judges commented upon the excellent presentation made by the law students. Following the Competition a reception was held for members of the judiciary, the Association, and the law schools.

THE DOMESTIC Relations Court Committee, Mrs. Helen L. Buttenwieser, Chairman, has considered at the Mayor's request appointments to the Domestic Relations Court and submitted to the Mayor its recommendations. The Chairman of the Committee has also had a meeting with Presiding Justice John Warren Hill to outline the work of the Committee during the coming year. Members of the Committee on the invitation of Justice Hill visited the Court where they listened to an informal explanation of the Court Clinic by Dr. Montague, the psychiatrist in charge of the clinic.

At its first meeting of the year the Committee on International Law, John E. Lockwood, Chairman, entertained as its guest Thomas G. Lund of London, Secretary of The Law Society. Mr. Lund talked informally about the organization of the International Bar Association and also about the work of The Law Society.

The Committee also considered its program for the coming year, which will include a study of the Connally and Vandenberg amendments, a review of the treaty-making powers of the Senate, and a report on the work of the International Court.

Following its practice of having guests at its meetings, the Committee has invited for the next meeting Dr. Edvard Hambro, Registrar of the International Court, and Mr. U. Chan Htoon, Constitutional Adviser to the Government of Burma.

THE ENTERTAINMENT Committee, Judge James Garrett Wallace, Chairman, has mailed to the membership a questionnaire asking whether members of the Association who are interested in music would like to organize an orchestra. The Committee is fortunate in having the services of a lawyer who is a talented and experienced musician and who has agreed to rehearse and direct such an orchestra.

The Committee also plans a second Twelfth-Night Festival on January 6, 1948, announcements of which will be mailed to the membership.

THE MEDICAL Jurisprudence Committee, of which George H. Sibley is chairman, has organized its work for the coming year under the direction of three subcommittees. The committees were appointed to deal with laws relating to the care of the mentally ill, legal problems connected with the control of alcoholism, and the problem of expert witnesses. The Committee also is contemplating holding a forum on current problems in the field of medical jurisprudence.

•••

THE COMMITTEE on Courts of Superior Jurisdiction, Samuel M. Lane, Chairman, will shortly present to the Appellate Division, First Department, its detailed proposals as to improvements that might be affected in the calendar practice of the Supreme Court. The Committee is also concerned with the serious lack of judicial manpower in the United States District Court for the Southern District. It will be recalled that last year the Special Committee on the Federal Courts appeared before the Congress to urge that legislation which prohibited the filling of the vacancy on the Court caused by the retirement of Judge Woolsey be repealed.

THE FIRST Round Table Conference of the current Association year was held on October 27, with about two hundred members in attendance. The guest of the evening was Presiding Justice David W. Peck of the Appellate Division, First Department. Mr. Justice Peck delivered an extremely interesting talk on "Mutual Accommodation of Court and Counsel in the Appellate Division." At the conclusion of Justice Peck's address there was a question hour, and at the close of the Conference refreshments were served.

The new plan of opening the dinner which precedes the Conference to all members of the Association proved a decided success, and this pattern will be followed in subsequent meetings.

ON NOVEMBER 18 Justice Bernard L. Shientag delivered the first of the series of lectures which will be sponsored this year by the Committee on Post-Admission Legal Education. Justice Shientag spoke before a large audience on "Cross-Examination—A Judge's Viewpoint."

The second lecture in the series will be the address by Adolf A. Berle, Jr., on "The Marshall Plan."

THE LAW REFORM Committee has under consideration at the present time the following projects: proof of adultery in divorce cases; trusts and the attachment of life beneficiaries' interests; revision of section 25 of the Personal Property Law; apparent inconsistencies between statutes of limitation dealing with mortgage principal and interest obligations; and the legal effects in New York of void foreign divorce decrees.

The Committee is most desirous of receiving from members suggestions for the improvement of the law. Suggestions may be addressed to the chairman, Barent Ten Eyck, 40 Wall Street, New York 5.

AMONG the projects being considered for study by the Committee on Admiralty, Vincent A. Catoggio, Jr., Chairman, are the amendment of the United States Supreme Court Admiralty Rule 56 to permit impleader in limitation of liability proceedings; the enlargement or abolition of the six months' period prescribed for the filing of a petition for limitation of liability; provision for permitting appeals in admiralty on questions of fact in accordance with the theory that such appeals are trials de novo; and revision of Title 46 of the U.S. Code. In addition, the Committee will review currently the progress of legislation relating to admiralty in the Congress and the General Assembly.

THE WORK of the Administrative Law Committee, Robert M. Benjamin, Chairman, will cover five general subjects. The Committee will study the operation of the Federal Administrative Procedure Act; the desirability of a New York state administrative procedure act; the proposed Administrative Practitioners' Act known as the Gwynne Bill; the revision of Article 78 of the Civil Practice Act; and the means of securing closer liaison between the legislative and administrative agencies of the Government.

•••

THE OFFICE of the Secretary of the Association has requested that the membership be advised that it is not too late to return to the Association the membership record cards. It should be emphasized that these cards will take the place of the present permanent membership records. It will save expense to the Association if the cards are returned without the necessity of having a reminder notice mailed.

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE on Public and Bar Relations, Judge Samuel I. Rosenman, Chairman, has been directed by the Executive Committee to promote legislation which would provide tax relief for persons not covered by existing pension plans. This subject has been studied by the Committee on Taxation, which has cooperated with Judge Rosenman's Committee in this work. The resolution adopted by the Executive Committee is as follows:

RESOLVED, that this Committee approves the adoption of amendments to the Internal Revenue Code which will permit members of partnerships and individual professional men and proprietors of businesses to have the same tax benefits with respect to pension plans as are now available to those doing business under the corporate form; and be it further

RESOLVED, that this subject matter be referred back to the Committee on Public and Bar Relations to take all proper steps to promote legislation in this respect.

THE HONORABLE Robert P. Patterson, former Secretary of War, Judge Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., of Boston, and Judge Henry W. Edgerton, of Washington, D. C., will constitute the Appellate Bench for the final argument of the Harlan Fiske Stone Competition of the Columbia Law School.

The competition will be held under the auspices of the Columbia Law School at the House of the Association, December 5, 1947, at 8:30 o'clock. The case to be argued is based on the record of Winters v. The People of the State of New York. Members of the Association and their guests are invited to attend.

Contestants for the Blackstone Moot Court are Lawrence R. Gould, James D. O'Neill, Ellis R. Phillips, Jr., and David B. Bressler, and for the Bramwell Moot Court, Ernest G. Allen, Joseph Alderman, Theodore J. Carlson, and Jane Marks.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICE

Our investment advisory service embraces every function relating to the management and safekeeping of investments including brokerage facilities, thus relieving the investor of the necessity for a multiplicity of different contacts and relationships.

Success in the management of an investment portfolio depends upon decisions based upon studies of underlying economic conditions and trends and studies of industries and the analysis of individual companies and securities. Upon the basic conclusions on these matters rests the prudent apportionment of funds for safety, income or appreciation, considering the needs and objectives of the individual portfolio.

When the Will or Deed of Trust gives proper authority, attorneys have found our experience with complicated Estate and Trust matters to have unusual value in assisting them in the administration of Estates and Trusts.

A more detailed introduction to our investment service will be mailed on request.
